Jeremy Browne MP
Minister for Latin America
Reports Back on His Visit to Bolivia and Prospects for future Relations

The Minister (centre) with Ambassador Nigel Baker and Chevening scholars in July 2011

Chair of the APPG Bolivia Baroness Gibson of Market Rasen and Secretary, Jeremy Corbyn MP invite you to this event.

As part of the UK's commitment to greater engagement in Latin America, Foreign Office Minister Jeremy Browne visited Bolivia in July 2011 and we are delighted that he has agreed to report back on his trip which included discussions with Government Ministers, and also talk to us about current and future relations between the UK and Bolivia.

His visit highlighted areas of cooperation between the two countries such as BG Bolivia's new investment in gas fields and areas of crime prevention such as the fight against illegal drugs including the UK funded forensic laboratory. He announced support for projects on immigration control and investigative techniques and visited police officers in El Alto participating in the UK initiated Community Policing project.

The UK is supporting the Bolivian Olympic team by providing funding for training, and the Minister went to the High Altitude Sports Performance Centre on the shores of Lake Titicaca to mark one year to go to the start of the Games. Bolivian Chevening Scholars study in the UK each year and Mr Browne met with past and future recipients of Chevening funding.

As well as reporting back on his visit, the Minister will talk about current relations with Bolivia and prospects for the future.

There will be a reception where refreshments will be served after the event.
