News from the Bridge Meriel Larken

Meriel will entertain us with the latest developments on board the M.S. Yavari (1862) berthed in Puno Bay and sailing on Lake Titicaca and with tales of related and unrelated matters and happenings around the Lake in Peru and Bolivia.

The Yavari, the oldest ship of her kind in the world, was built in England and laboriously transported piecemeal over the Andes. Meriel expands on her earlier lecture with amusing anecdotes and some further observations.

Jointly presented with the Anglo-Peruvian Society.
